

16
Remarks On Board Ship Elizabeth, Jan 1852

Thursday 22

This day commences with a gale of wind from the S.W. covers C by W watch employed in ship duty mended part strong gale and heavy sea latter part furled the main sail close reef the fore top sail so ends Scott

Friday Jan 23 Long

This day commences with a gale of wind from the S.W. steering C by W watch employed in ship duty kept the mainsail and set it latter part the wind calm made all sail. so ends Scott Long

Saturday 24

This day commences with a fine breeze from the W by N steering C by S with standing sails out set watch employed in mending spungarn and ship duty saw 1 sail. mended and latter part strong wind and fair weather watch employed in ship duty kept the lower bludding sail. so ends Scott Long

Sunday 25

This day commences with strong wind from the N. by E. W by C steering C by S watch employed in ship duty latter part strong wind from the same quarter set the lower standing sail. so ends Scott

Monday Jan 26 Long

This day commences with strong wind W steering C by S weather foggy saw a school of Porpoises latter light wind from the S.W. steering C by S watch employed in breaking up for water and provision so ends Scott Long

Tuesday 27

This day begins with strong winds from the W.S.W. double reef the top sails watch employed in slow down and mending spungarn latter part light wind steering by the wind made all sail so ends this day

Scott
Long

17
Remarks On Board Ship Elizabeth 252

Wednesday 28

This day commences with light wind steering by the wind watch and calm watch employed in setting the lights and foot rope latter part calm watch employed in ship breaking out for coal and the blacksmith forg cast a Piquin sent down the fore top sail and sent up the new fore top sail. so ends Scott Long

Thursday 29

This day commences with light wind from the N steering by the wind sent down the fore top sail and sail to mend watch employed in mending it sent it up latter part light wind and foggy weather watch employed in ship duty so ends Scott

Long

Friday 30

This day commences with strong wind from the N. steering W. watch employed in ship duty mending the fore top sail took in the fore and mizen top gallant sails latter part light wind watch employed in ship duty so ends Scott

Scott 15. 18

Saturday 31

This day commences with fine breeze from the W steering C by S watch employed in mending the fore top sail sent up the fore top sail saw fish back latter part light wind from the N.W. steering C by S at 11 a.m. raised the sand on the de ck.

on the lee beam. and another island, apt off for the sail which prove to be the Norman of W. Antucket. so ends this day Scott Secretary Long

Sunday Feb 1

This day begins with strong wind from the N.W.W. at 10 a.m. spoke the Norman the captain came on board and the mate went on board of her at sundown he came on and the captain went on board of his ship double reef the top sails. latter part light wind set the top sails raining fore the Sandown land in sight so ends Scott Long