

#14

Journal: October - Dec. 30. 1849.

Solomon, Lemmon on Tuesday 30 October sailed in the Ship Emma A.C. Jones on a Whaling voyage from London, for
With Captain R. Little

We had a very rough
All that day. And a strong breeze
And so ends this 24 hours
We are bound to the River Plate for See much sperm whales. And also where the ships
See yet. A. Niff See the same too. 44 Munc
See the that their is large sperm whales there
I hope the good will grant us the luck for to

We are bound to the distant
If I had to do. I guess for water and potatoes
And then to the main banks for
Bright whales in hopes to get full
If we are you with such numbers
Some with air filling in the look sharp
And you will see us at the first of June the year of our Lord 1850. Am. S.
I am in all this time

Off the Looking for Whales Boat
Off the Boat of the same. It looks
Another. Dashed. At present

Off the Boat. Look still
Off the Boat. The same
Home. Not here

To the same