

106
From bark W. Bank & Sons' House & Wholesto Journal on board the ship Emma.

Remarks the Board Master Day December 21st 1850
These 24 hours commences with the S light breeze from the N. W. it was a foggy steered to the N. and at 11 am threw the sheets out at the top sails at 6 pm. For the sail for the night it was thick called all hands at 11 o'clock to see what sail the wind was to the N. W. and steered to the N. and it was thick with thick fog. The wind was S. E. at 11 pm. S. E.

Long 20.20 W. So Ends this Day
Remarks the Board Master Day December 22nd 1850
These 24 hours commences with the S light breeze from
the N. W. it was a foggy steered to the N. and at 11 am threw the sheets out at the top sails at 6 pm. For
the sail for the night it was thick called all hands
at 11 o'clock to see what sail the wind was to
the N. W. and steered to the N. and it was thick with thick fog. The wind was S. E. at 11 pm. S. E.

Remarks the Board Master Day December 23rd 1850
These 24 hours commences with the S light breeze from
the N. W. it was a foggy steered to the N. and at 11 am threw the sheets out at the top sails at 6 pm. For
the sail for the night it was thick called all hands
at 11 o'clock to see what sail the wind was to
the N. W. and steered to the N. and it was thick with thick fog. The wind was S. E. at 11 pm. S. E.

Remarks the Board Master Day December 24th 1850
These 24 hours commences with the S light breeze from
the N. W. it was a foggy steered to the N. and at 11 am threw the sheets out at the top sails at 6 pm. For
the sail for the night it was thick called all hands
at 11 o'clock to see what sail the wind was to
the N. W. and steered to the N. and it was thick with thick fog. The wind was S. E. at 11 pm. S. E.

107
to Journal on board the ship Emma.

Remarks the Board Master Day December 25th 1850
These 24 hours commences with the S light breeze from
the N. W. it was a foggy steered to the N. and at 11 am threw the sheets out at the top sails at 6 pm. For
the sail for the night it was thick called all hands
at 11 o'clock to see what sail the wind was to
the N. W. and steered to the N. and it was thick with thick fog. The wind was S. E. at 11 pm. S. E.

Remarks the Board Master Day December 26th 1850
These 24 hours commences with the S light breeze from
the N. W. it was a foggy steered to the N. and at 11 am threw the sheets out at the top sails at 6 pm. For
the sail for the night it was thick called all hands
at 11 o'clock to see what sail the wind was to
the N. W. and steered to the N. and it was thick with thick fog. The wind was S. E. at 11 pm. S. E.

Remarks the Board Master Day December 27th 1850
These 24 hours commences with the S light breeze from
the N. W. it was a foggy steered to the N. and at 11 am threw the sheets out at the top sails at 6 pm. For
the sail for the night it was thick called all hands
at 11 o'clock to see what sail the wind was to
the N. W. and steered to the N. and it was thick with thick fog. The wind was S. E. at 11 pm. S. E.

Remarks the Board Master Day December 28th 1850
These 24 hours commences with the S light breeze from
the N. W. it was a foggy steered to the N. and at 11 am threw the sheets out at the top sails at 6 pm. For
the sail for the night it was thick called all hands
at 11 o'clock to see what sail the wind was to
the N. W. and steered to the N. and it was thick with thick fog. The wind was S. E. at 11 pm. S. E.