

A black and white photograph of a fish, likely a salmon, shown from the side. The fish is oriented vertically with its head at the top. It has a dark, mottled pattern along its body. The handwritten number '485' is visible on the lower part of the fish's side. The background is light and slightly textured.

6. Dec 1864

[Faint handwritten notes, possibly "C. Thorne"]

Strong

Elkhart
 Henry
 (Employed)

