

Logbook (Bancroft H. H. in March 29th)

Remarks on board this day Fine weather Bancroft H. H. 11.4.17.18

Three gase of fast ship, quite a large steam but shows 1 of fuel as if I had no time to spare at all are anxious to gain my post-and obtain my retainer as soon as possible and steer for the Arctic sea in search of bivalve in hopes to be fortunate enough to find 2,000 this season

Remarks Tuesday 30th
Fine weather from 10. Course W. by N. W.
Middle and late with the same

Lat 17.55 Long 149.29

Remarks Wednesday 31st
These 24 hours heavily with fine 6 N.E. water course W. by N. W. are with employed in ships Duty & C.

Remarks Thursday 1st Stranger expect to make the look to morrow of the wind stands

Lat 18.52 Long 152.29

Weston & Swift
Ship Liverpool
of New Bedford
Weston & Swift

Lat 16.37 Long 146.36

only me

myself - New Name to

Remarks on board this Day of June 1st 1852
Ship Liverpool Arrived in New York 1st June 1852 Leaved from there on the 15 tender to New York to New York Left New York on the 15 leaving the the Arctic Ocean in hopes to be successful in procuring oil
this day so ends

Remarks on board Sunday 24th and rainy light which from S.E. course W. by N. at 10.00 am in the lat of a boat

35.30 Long 17.16
Ship Perfect
Arrived at New York 31st 1852 with 414 barrels of oil all well with the loss of 3. top mast but all 3.
The rest a gain