

Liverpool Bound South

Remarks on board Sunday 12
 Strong winds from S Course
 N-E-W hauled to the Sandwich Islands This afternoon I find myself to the South of St. Lawrence Island (some say) & give me for the last 2 Days I am in company with a large N. Sail and hauler South I have on board about 23,50 Bbls of oil and am thankful for it I find a plenty of ships that is very large and good I have spoken 2 ships to day that have done little one has got 1000 the other a haul 1100 Bbls what I should I do of I shall get no more oil then that

Remarks Sept 14th

This day light winds from N Course I will sail out not much during and time
 My Latitude by Dr is 58.40
 Long by Dr 182.50

Remarks Monday the 16th
 This day light winds from S-E keep up and I take I sail in the later wind from E Course S of W Lat 55.30 Long 184.40

Sept 12th 52

The good ship Liverpool bound for here 16th 1852 with a boat 2400 Bbls oil on board of which 150 of it is sperm
 Sandwich Islands
 Western & Swift is Command

Tuesday Sept 21st 52

This day strong winds from E North & Rainy on the 1st I took I have had the winds from E for the last 6 or 7 days I fear the spot Islands at the 15th have had East winds ever since I think I shall get a fair wind now soon I am in haste to get in soon and hear from my wife and home but must have patience

My Lat is 48.40 Long 172

Remarks on board Tuesday 23 Strong winds from N Course E have had fair winds now for the last 2 days and I am in hopes to hold of them for the next 5 days and get a good run in to the Islands I want to hear from my family but much in haste
 Lat 45.40 Long 181.10