

Ship Liverpool Bound N W
Remarks Thursday 17. Wind

Strong wind from S E Course N W Every thing out to & left at 4 P M saw the Pole of S. G. Isles at 7 the fast is fine wind from S E from this I take my departure for the Arctic Coast

L. at 26.50 Long 79.50

Chronometer Seem to be about right

Remarks On board Friday 23.
Five Trades from E. S. E. Steaming Sails out to & left Course N W W
One watch employ'd in Taring down Rigging & C

I am in hopes to make a quick & prosperous passage Takes a good start since leaving Salcediana

My Latitude is 91.47
and Longitude 92.24

Remarks Saturday 25. At Left breeze from E. Course N by N Weathering sails out to & left the Employ'd in Painting ship inside at 5 P M most of Painting

Ship Liverpool Bound to the Arctic

Swifter Remarks have had Light breeze for the last 2 Days but expect to get more breeze soon Course N. by N

My Latitude is 16.15
and Longitude about 100.00

Remarks This Day Monday 28
Five Trades from E. S. E. Course
N. by N finish Painting Ship in view Commence painting Masts & C Mantling New No. 1 Stairs
One watch employ'd for the Mast Part of the Stairs

L. at 14.00
Long 106.10

These Days are long but there good & light all things considered I take a fresh and fore wind and that is proving to its purpose I do hope the wind will continue thus fresh and we shall be able to have jurnal and the to be bound with Dispatch

Remarks Wednesday 30
Five E. S. E. Trades Course N. by N One watch Employ'd in Painting Sails out to & left

L. at 12.00 Long 108.45