

Remarks on board of

Tuesday Nov 4th 1884

Lat 30.06 N For all this 24 hours fresh N.W. winds Long 21.25 W. Steering S. S. W. Employed in various ways. Two sail in sight.

Wednesday Nov 5th 1884

Lat 28.43 N For the fore and middle part of this day
 Long 21.36 W. moderate breeze from the N. W. Brig steering
 S. S. W. One sail in sight on the starboard Beam. Employed in repairing the Main-Sail and in various other ways.
 Latter part moderate N. W. C. winds

Thursday Nov 6th 1884

Lat 27.20 N For the fore and middle part of this day
 Long 21.45 W. light Baffling wind from N. N. E. to N. W. W.
 Brig steering S. S. W. Employed in various ways. One Steamer in sight today. One Fin. Buck Yacht part along N. N. W. winds, steering S. S. W.

Friday Nov 7th 1884

Lat 25.06 N This day begins with a strong N. N. W.
 Long 21.49 W. wind increasing to a moderate gale for the middle part with a heavy sharp sea.
 Latter part a little more moderate steams
 S. S. W. under a single reef top sail

Saturday Nov 8th 1884

Lat 22.52 N For the fore part of these 24 hours a strong Long 21.27 W. breeze from the N. by W. Middle part fresh North westerly wind with a heavy swell. steering S. S. W. Yacht part luffed to the wind under reef top sail. one the western tack.

Brig C. H. Adams.

Sunday Nov 9th 1884

Lat 21.42 N For the fore part of this day fresh N. N. W.
 Long 22.00 W. winds with frequent rain squalls. Brig by the wind on the starboard tack. Middle part fresh N. N. W. wind steering S. S. W. by S
 One steamer in sight steering to the North
 The Brig is making as bad as she was before we went in St. Michael. 17.30 an puffing twice a day about 20 minutes at each spell. Latter part light N. N. W. winds steering S. S. W. by S.

Monday Nov 10th 1884

Lat 20.22 For the fore and middle part of this day light Long 20.62 N. N. W. winds Employed in making out
 At 4 P. M. saw a large sperm whale on the starboard quarter 2 miles off, lowered 2 boats at 4.30 and lowered the third boat at 5 P. M. chased till dark with no success.
 The whale being very singular. Brig steering
 S. S. W. by S all this the fore and middle part Yacht part by the wind under short sail

Tuesday Nov 11th 1884

Lat 19.56 N For the fore part of this day light N. N. W.
 Long 22.30 W. wind Brig by the wind under short sail Middle part under all sail steering various courses. Saw two white whales which proved to be Humpbacks. Saw several pieces of squid also. Latter part light Northwesterly winds Brig on both tacks by the wind.