

Remarks of A Whaling Log on Board

Sat Dec 21stCommenced with fine weather light Easterly
Wind Curving Saw one Schooner Steering
So. W. Lat 27.09 Long 76.50Sunday Dec 22ndCommenced with fine weather med &
Later part the same Curving
Lat 27.19 Long 77.9 W
Lat 28.17 WMonday Dec 23rdCommenced with fine weather light Easterly Wind med & later the Same Lat by ab 28.14 W
Long by chor 77.40 WTuesday Dec 24thCommenced with fine weather light Easterly wind Saw 3 Sails at 1.40 P.M.
Saw Spurn Whaler Soward 2 boats
Went Boat Went on and mist a poor
Chance whaler went to windward
Lat 30.04 W
Long 77.58 WWed Dec 25thCommenced with light Easterly Wind
And rain spally Saw 3 Sails
Med & later the Same
Lat 30.55 W
Long 78.20 WThurs Dec 26thCommenced with light Baffling
Wind Med And later Calm
Saw 2 Steamers
Lat 30.30
Long 78.15

of The Brig E. H. Adams Wm H. Martin

Friday Dec 27thCommenced with fine weather light Baffling Wind Saw Blackfish med & later part the Same Saw 2 Schooners and Bark one Steamer
Lat 30.10 W
Long 77.45 WSat Dec 28thCommenced with fine weather light Wind from W. W. Med and later the Same
Lat by ab 30.45
Long by chor 77.55Sunday Dec 29thCommenced with fine weather Strong Wind from W. Steering W. W. Med & later the Same Lat 31.25 Long 78.20 WMonday Dec 30thCommenced with Strong W. Wind
Brig Brig under Reef Foretop sail & Reef
Mainsail heading W. W. So. EndTuesday Dec 31stCommenced with Strong West Wind Ship
Heading W. W. under Short Sail med &
Later the Same No abJan Wed 1st 1889 1890Commenced with a Strong W. E. Wind Steering S. W. for part Bocal med part
More moderate & thick fog So EndThurs Jan 2ndCommenced with a Calm and thick fog Med & later the Same Sounded
And got 19 fathoms of water
So End