

Dutch Log Head

Tuesday March 17

Fresh breeze from the E.S.E. with a heavy sea Ship on the Starboard tack heaving S.E. with top sails courses fished Chancier nothing in light Middle Port the same last Port Light breeze from E. with rain nothing in light

Wednesday March 18

Commence with a calm with the top sails blow down Batching them later made all Gail Light breeze from the E.S.E. last Port the same nothing in light raised all new Fore and main gal benches and Buntlines

Lat 30.0 S
Long 87.115

Thursday March 19

Fresh breeze from the S.E. Ship on the Starboard
Tack heaving E.S.E. Later Wind S. Ship Stearing
E. with all Gail Set nothing in light Middle Port Wind S.E. last Port Wind E.S.E. nothing in light Employed in hauling the fore gal back Stays

Lat 30.0 S
Long 86.18

Friday March 20

Fresh breeze from the E.S.E. Ship on the Starboard Tack By the wind nothing in light
Middle Port the same last Port Wind E.S.E.
Ship making all nothing in light
Employed in breaking out Gails to get the Upper and lower top sails to Bend

Lat 12.4 S
Long 88.39

Log On Rear

Saturday March 21

Light breeze from the E.S.E. Ship on the Starboard Tack By the wind seen one fire back
Bent the lower main top sail yard up
Middle Port with the same last the same Repaired the upper and lower main top sail and Bent them Bent a new mainsail

Lat 43.0 S
Long 86.08

Sunday March 22

Light breeze from the S.E. Ship on the Starboard
Tack By the wind nothing in light Middle Port Wind E. last Port Wind E.S.E. Ship on Starboard Tack nothing in light

Lat 42.0 S
Long 86.16

Monday March 23

Light breeze from the E.S.E. Ship on Starboard
Tack Later Wind S. Ship on Port Tack
Nothing in light Middle Port Ship on the Starboard Tack Wind E. last the same nothing in light Employed in making double top sails
Cut off the old main top sails

Lat 17.0 S
Long 86.03

Tuesday March 24

Light breeze from the E. Ship on the Starboard
Tack heaving E.S.E. nothing in light
Employed in Gail making Middle Port Wind
S. last the same nothing in light Employed in Gail making

Lat 12.0 S
Long 86.15

Wednesday March 25

Light breeze from the E.S.E. Ship on the Starboard Tack heaving S.E. nothing in light Employed in Gail making Middle Port and last the same
Nothing in light Employed in Gail making