

Remarks on Ship. Alfred Gibbs

Wednesday Mar 8th 1854 N^o 7
Strong wind from NW. course E. & S.

Thursday 9th 8
Strong breeze from the South course E. & S.
under double reef

Friday 10th 9
Wind light from N to W & cloudy

Saturday 11th 10
Strong wind from N. & S. & raining course E. & S.

Sunday 12th 11
Strong wind from N. & S. under double reef Lat. 35. 11 N Long 13. 41 W

Monday 13th 12
Blowing a gale from E. to E. & S. under close reef main top sail & reefed fore sail.
Lat. 34. 20 Long 11. 02

Tuesday 14th 13
Blowing a gale from N. & S. headed to the
E. & S.

Wednesday 15th 14
Wind from E. & S. to S. & more moderate double reef top sails set.

Thursday 16th 15
Wind S. & S. headed to the Eastward

Bound to the Pacific 1/54

Friday Mar 17th N^o 16
Strong wind from the South course
E. & S. rainy weather.

Saturday 18th 17
Light wind from the Eastward
by the wind to the South

Sunday 19th 18
Strong breeze from E. by N. see journal
to General Mail

Monday 20th 19
Strong breeze from E. & S. course
E. & S.

Tuesday 21th 20
Wind E. & S. backing S. & by S

Wednesday 22th 21
Strong breeze from E. & S. course
S. & by S

Thursday 23th 22
Moderate breeze from E. to E. & S. course
S. & S.

Friday 24th 23
Light breeze from E. to E. & S. course
S. by E