A Brief Account of a Voyage from New Bedford to the Brasil Banks in the Ship George & Martha.

April the 10 - 1821 took our anchor and stood out but by the neglect of the Pilot we got aground on a place called the great Sledge where we lay 12 hours and damaged our Bottom so much that we had to put back and heave the ship out which employed us until the 2 of May when we put to sea and on the 22 of May the Islands of Carro and Flores two of the Azores or Western Islands we then cruised among that Cluster of Islands until the 11 of July 1821 when we put in at St Georges and got refreshment of Potatoes Onions Fruits and wine on the 15th put to sea and on the 4 of August saw the Cape De Verde Islands on the
