

fish for sometime and had Liberty on shore the most of the time since we had been here he had gone on shore yesterday and had not come off at night which was the cause of his being left the Land here is hilly of a claye soil free from stones and has the Appearance of being good But Vegetables are scarce owing to the bad management of the Spaniards that raise it Cattle here are in the greatest plenty you can purchase a fat Bullack for the sum of 6 or 6 Dols on leaving this place we had moderate weather until the 15 at night we saw Land and altered our course for it the Fortune still in company I shall for the future keep a more Perticular Account
