

November the first commences with a rain storm steering Eastward saw Porpoises the day ends with squalls of winds and rain. Lattdo Longdo

TUESDAY this day commences with a strong wind steering NW saw jampers and porpoises the day ends well Lattdo Longdo

Wednesday the 3^d this day commences with strong wind steering Southward the latter part of the day had a thunder squall wind and rain hauled up the fore and fore forked chud up fore topsail eased reefed the main top sail saw Porpoises and Berry Bees the dark and struck me but the one saw to spouts the day end with a strong breeze Lattdo Longdo

Thursday the 4th to day with a light breeze steering N saw Killers with a little rain men employed in ships duty the day ends fine Lattdo Longdo

November the 5th 1852 Friday this day commences with a light breeze steering by the wind ends with a strong wind Lattdo Longdo

Saturday the 6th the day with a light wind & P.M. saw a sail they rime we set our light but we did not now what nation it was we held our signal Lattdo Longdo

Sunday the 7th commences with a light wind saw jampers one Merchant Killed one hog this day ends well Lattdo Longdo

Monday the 8th this day commences with a strong wind saw one sail and jampers men employed in setting up the fore rigging this day ends with a strong breeze
Lattdo Longdo