

Sunday of October the 16 1853

Weather little more pleasant men employed in boiling finished about 10 P.M. saw Humpbacks broke out flour latter part of the day quite fine Lat 6° 37' Long 24° 25'

Monday the 17

Courts kind quite fine at sunrise prepared to broke out for stowing down oil the latter part of the day stowing down the oil Lat 6° 37' Long 24° 28'

Tuesday the 18

Finished stowing down our oil the latter part of the day
Lat 7° 19' no

Wednesday 19

squally and rainy saw Grampus Porpoises and Killers broke out for hams Cooper employed in repairing cask the latter part fine
Lat 7° 31' Long 24° 45'

Thursday the October the 20 1853

Courts kind bright winds with some rain saw Cowfish Porpoises the latter the day ends with Lat 7° 51' no

Friday 21

good breeze with some rain saw several sails shark the the last part squally no no

Saturday 22 Rainy and squally at 1 P.M. spoke the ship Lausanne of J.B. Norton Master in noushy out clean let her have some blackish oil the latter very fine

Sunday the 23

fine rain and squally saw several Whaleman

Lat 7° 57' 23° 28'

Monday the 24

wind and weather as usual saw Porpoises Cooper several Lat 7° 38' Long 24° 41' sails