

Monday the 28 of November 1853
N.W. N.E. fine weather with a moderate breeze saw Porpoises men employed in setting up the fore galient rigging
Lat 12.25 Long 42.45

Tuesday the 29
N.W. N.E. fine weather with a light breeze saw ship backs and fly fish
Lat 13 29 N Long 44.11 W

Wednesday the 30
N.W. N.E. fine weather with light wind saw nothing worthy of note
Lat 14.19 N Long 46.03 W

Thursday December the 1 1853
Cross Wind N.E. fine weather and light wind men employed in setting up the gill and fly pole stays and repairing the Lat 15.02 N Long 47.30

Friday the 2th
N.W. N.E. fine weather with a light wind men employed in ships duty Broke out for beef

Saturday the 3rd Lat 15.50 Long 49.58
N.W. N.E. fine weather with a light wind with occasional a light rain saw a finback
Lat 16.07 N Long 52.25 W

Sunday 4th
W. E by N fine weather with a strong breeze saw a Grampus Lat 16.19 Long 55.00 W

Monday 5th
W. E strong breeze with some rain saw nothing
Lat 16.34 Long 56.25