

Remarks on board off the Gallapagos Islands
Thursday 30th 1860

Begins Moderate Breezes fine weather working to the Eastward on the wind the tail of Abington Boreing East 7 miles dist one Sail in sight at 6 P.M. saw plenty of Gulphus Bottoms this morning
304 days out

Friday 31st
Begins the same & A.M. the Capt & Boats
Crew went in shore fishing 1 P.M. came off with plenty of fish my spoke the Columbus of New Bedford Working to the Eastward
In company
305 days out

Saturday Sept 1
Begins Strong Breezes with rain squalls
Working to the Eastward on the wind
The wind about S.E. Variouslly employed
306 days out

Sunday 2nd
Begins the same working into Tombes
The wind about S.E.
Lat 40 miles N Long 87 W
307 days out

Monday 3rd
Begins the same fresh breezes fine weather
Standing to the Eastward on the wind
The wind about S setting up new sheets for
308 days out

Tuesday 4th
Begins fresh breezes with drizzling rain
Pleasant & easy & to the Land on the wind
Variouslly employed
Lat 35 miles N Long 82 = 90 W
309 days out

Remarks on board on the Coast
Wednesday 5th

Begins Moderate breezes thick & hazy Pleasant & easy on the wind 9 A.M. made the Land the point of St Helena 2 points On our lee bow 12 miles dist saw plenty of hump Backs variouslly employed about the Ship
310 days out

Thursday 6th
Begins light airs & calm Luffas past fine Breeze 4 P.M. came to anchor in the harbor of Tombes
311

Friday 7th
commenced coopersing Bred the capt on shore
Carried A raft up the river and filled it
312 days out

Saturday 8th
Still at Anchor all hands employed in coopersing Bred and getting off water and variouslly employed the capt on board
313 days out

Sunday 9th
Still at Anchor a day of rest and gaming Last night the Comm^o Morris of the Harmouth came in so today has been spent in gaming
314 days out

Monday 10th
Still at Anchor fine weather employed
In getting Maltas & mashing ship the capt on shore
315

Tuesday 11th
Still at anchor fine weather employed
In getting wafer & recruits the captⁿ tracling with Merchants from shore
316 days out