

Journal on Board The Ship

George Corten and Whaling Varge

Monday No the 22

first part a part of Wind from the N.W. and strong headwind to the N. under short sail employed in Bayling and storing - some sail made and better part more moderate but double reef top sail and head to the N.W. spoke of ship from London Board to Larketta near Lat By 66 3604 South

Tuesday No the 23

All those 24 new moderate Brees from the N.W. and strong headwind to the N.W. all sail not employed in Bayling and storing some made and took in sail as usual. Some from Whails but could not forer sail in rate so and Lat By 66 3554

Wednesday No the 24

first part had for Whails from the N.W. and strong headwind to the N.W. all sail not employed in Bayling and storing some made and took in sail as usual. Some from Whails but could not forer sail in rate so and Lat By 66 3605 South

Thursday No the 25

All those 24 new moderate Brees from the N.W. and strong headwind to the N.W. all sail not employed in Bayling and storing some made and took in sail as usual. Some from Whails but could not forer sail in rate so and Lat By 66 3610 South

Friday No the 26

Canaries with strong Brees from the N.W. and strong headwind to the N.W. all sail not employed in Bayling and storing some made and took in sail as usual. Some from Whails but could not forer sail in rate so and Lat By 66 3545 South

Saturday No the 27

at a full tide the Whails to the ship and Canaries Brees in at a full tide and took in sail for the better middle part later better part moderate Brees from the N.W. and frequent sprays of rain all morning sail not employed in Bayling or sail in rate so and Lat By 66 3545

Sunday No the 28

Canaries with strong Brees from the N.W. and frequent sprays of rain headwind to the N.W. all sail not employed in Bayling and storing some made and took in sail as usual. Some from Whails but could not forer sail in rate so and Lat By 66 3545 South

Monday No the 29

All those 24 new strong Brees from the N.W. and strong headwind to the N.W. all sail not employed in Bayling and storing some made and took in sail as usual. Some from Whails but could not forer sail in rate so and Lat By 66 3610 South

Tuesday Nov the 30

first and middle part a part of Wind from the N.W. and frequent sprays of rain headwind to the N.W. all sail not employed in Bayling and storing some made and took in sail as usual. Some from Whails but could not forer sail in rate so and Lat By 66 3545

Wednesday December the 1790

All those 24 new strong Brees from the N.W. and frequent sprays of rain headwind to the N.W. all sail not employed in Bayling and storing some made and took in sail as usual. Some from Whails but could not forer sail in rate so and Lat By 66 3545 South