

Journal of the Ship George D

Monday May the 2
 All those 24 sails moderate breezes from the S E and pleasant heading to the N E all sail set to the West Advancing 10 mi. Lat by the Sun by the Chronometer 36:40 W

Tuesday May the 3
 All those 24 sails moderate breezes from the S E and pleasant heading to the N E all sail set to the West Advancing 10 mi. Lat by the Sun by the Chronometer 36:40 W

Wednesday May the 4
 All those 24 sails moderate breezes from the S to S E and pleasant heading to the N E all sail set to the West Advancing 10 mi. Lat by the Sun by the Chronometer 36:40 W

Thursday May the 5
 All those 24 sails moderate breezes from the S E to S and pleasant heading to the N E all sail set to the West Advancing 10 mi. Lat by the Sun by the Chronometer 36:40 W

Continued Whaling Cruise with the

Friday May the 6
 All those 24 sails moderate breezes from the S E and pleasant heading to the N E all sail set to the West Advancing 10 mi. Lat by the Sun by the Chronometer 36:40 W

Saturday May the 7
 All those 24 sails moderate breezes from the S E and pleasant heading to the N E all sail set to the West Advancing 10 mi. Lat by the Sun by the Chronometer 36:40 W

Sunday May the 8
 first part when at 4 P.M. spoke the King yacht of Boston from Nags Head went to drop 64 Sails out middle part till 10 P.M. from the S E and pleasant heading to the N E all sail set to the West Advancing 10 mi. Lat by the Sun by the Chronometer 36:40 W

Monday May the 9
 Commenced with moderate breezes from the S and pleasant heading to the N E at 4 P.M. the winds back to the S E and pleasant heading to the N E all sail set to the West Advancing 10 mi. Lat by the Sun by the Chronometer 36:40 W