

Journal of the Ship George Carter

Thursday May the 19

Commenced with strong trade winds and heavy steam & breeze all morning, with sail at sunset, then with and lay by at daylight, winds with again and then to the west. Lat by the 1408 Long by the 2424

Friday May the 20

the island of St Vincent

Commenced with strong trade winds and much heavy clouds, the wind to the E by S in which of land at 4 o'clock ship to the N.E. at 2 o'clock tacked again to the E by S at daylight, lay by to the S.W. at 6 o'clock the land the island of St Vincent bearing S by W over there below it St Vincent and St Vincent's at sea. the island Rose N by E 10 miles distant is seen

the island of St Vincent

Sat May the 21

the island of St Vincent

the island of St Vincent

Commenced with strong trade winds and heavy steam to the S by E at 4 o'clock made the island of St Vincent bearing S by E 10 miles distant and wind to the N.E. at daylight and rose up to the S.W. at 1 o'clock the island Rose N by E 10 miles distant from which it takes my position to sea. Lat by the 1413 Long by the 2430

Sunday May the 22

Long by the 2420

first part better weather in latter part strong trade winds and heavy steam to the S by E all sail set to the West at daylight, Lat by the 1418 Long by the 2434

On a Whaling Voyage to the Cape of Good Hope

Monday May the 23

Long by the 2416

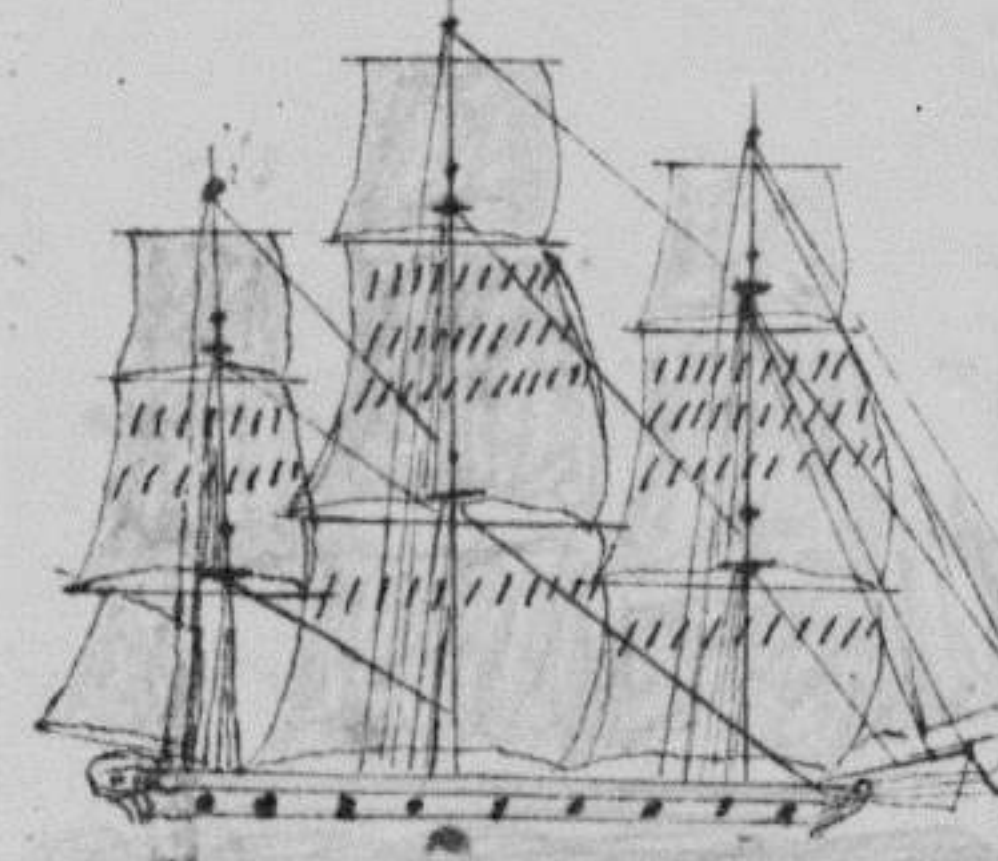

first and middle part strong trade winds and heavy steam to the S by E all morning sail set to the West at daylight, latter part more moderate fresh a number of tide rips seen, Lat by the 1425 Long by the 2440

Tuesday May the 24

Long by the 2400

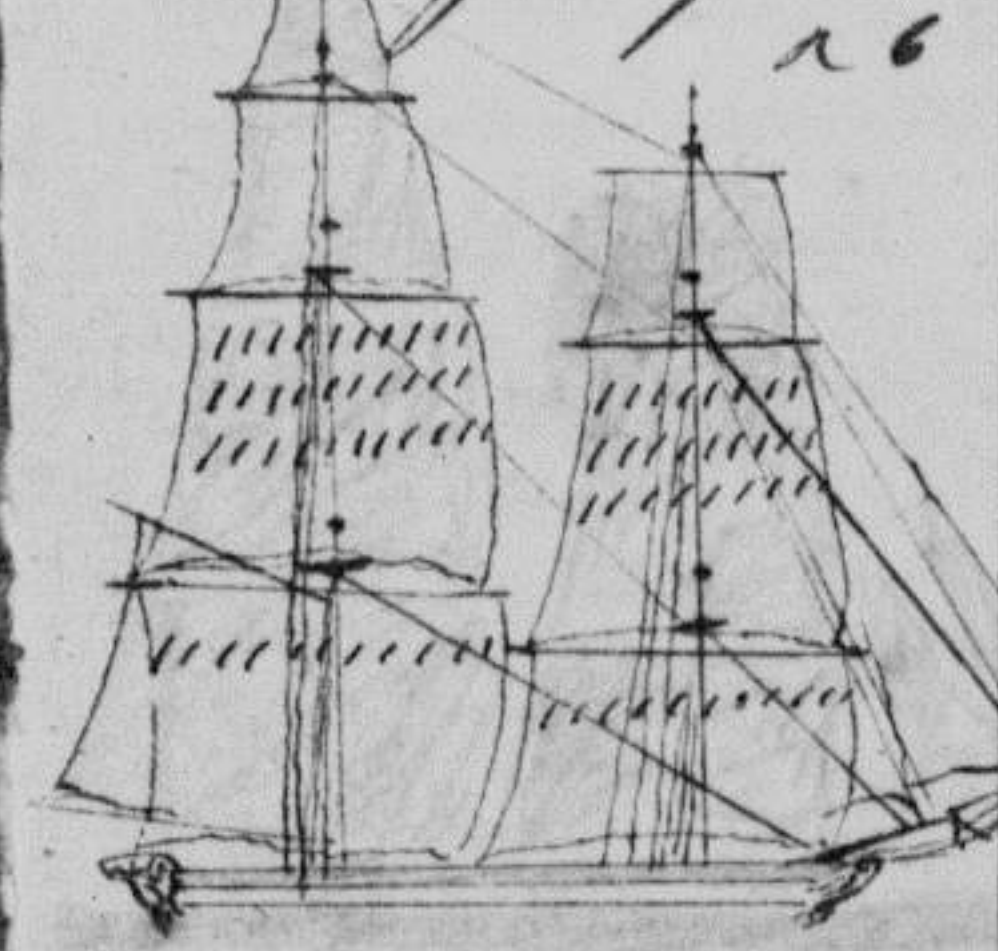

All these 24 hours moderate trade winds and pleasant weather steam to the S by E all sail set to the West at daylight, latter part more moderate fresh a number of tide rips seen, Lat by the 1431 Long by the 2446

Wednesday May the 25

All these 24 hours moderate trade winds from the S by E and heavy steam to the S by E all sail set to the West at daylight, latter part more moderate fresh a number of tide rips seen, Lat by the 1441 Long by the 2452

Thursday May the 26

first part moderate breeze from the S by E and heavy steam to the S by E all sail set to the West at daylight, latter part more moderate fresh a number of tide rips seen, Lat by the 1450 Long by the 2458

Friday May the 27

Long by the 2432

All these 24 hours moderate breeze from the S by E and heavy steam to the S by E all sail set to the West at daylight, latter part more moderate fresh a number of tide rips seen, Lat by the 1459 Long by the 2464