

Schr Glacier Fog. Cruising in Hudson

Wednesday September 7th 1864

Commenced with light breezes from the S. & pleasant weather by the wind working to the S. along shore spoke Bark Ansel Gibbs & Little later part light air & fog three Gulls in sight so ends

Thursday Sept 8th

Light variable winds & pleasant weather steering to the S. along the land the Starboard boat ashore at 6 p.m. come on board land distance about 6 miles 25 fathoms of water at 11 p.m. heaved up fresh from the N. Double reefed fore & mainsail & luffed to the wind at 5 p.m. kept off for Lape island & 10 come to anchor in 8 fathoms of water sent a boat ashore & got off some Shocks

Friday Sept 9th

Commenced with a fresh breeze from the N. & pleasant weather lying at anchor at Lape island & 5 Gulls lying at anchor here middle part moderate later part light breeze getting about Shocks some the Bark Antelope left here

Saturday Sept 10th

Commenced with light air from the S. & pleasant weather at 3 p.m. got underway in company with Bark Ansel Gibbs & Schr Cornelius Bound to Marble Island for winter quarters middle part light breeze from S.W. later part brisk breeze so ends this day

Sunday Sept 11th

Brisk breeze from S.W. & pleasant weather Marble Island bearing S.W. distance 15 miles working up to it middle part strong breeze reefed foresail & mainsail at 11 A.M. come to anchor to the lee of the island in company with Schr Cornelius & Bark Ansel Gibbs so ends this day

Bay Remarks on Board

Monday September 12th 1864

Commenced with

Strong breeze from S. & foggy weather lying at anchor at Marble Island the Starboard boat ashore looking for a harbor middle part moderate at 5 A.M. got underway & worked to the westward of the Island & come to anchor in a small Bay to lay for the winter in company with Bark only left & Ansel Gibbs & Schr Cornelius a good harbor land looked so ends this day

Tuesday Sept 13th

Commenced with

A strong breeze from the S.E. & rainy weather lying with bark anchors down middle part strong breeze & rain later part moderate & rain landed some Shocks for the winter so ends this day

Wednesday Sept 14th

Commenced with

with brisk breeze from the S.W. & variable weather the captain & crew gunning & few deer here & ducks game is very scarce here

Thursday Sept 15th

Commenced with

A gale from the N.W. & fair weather getting ready for winter a few ashore gunning

Friday Sept 16th

Commenced with

Light breeze from the N.E. & pleasant weather Starboard boat away looking for Narves & waids boat around the island looking for whales day ends with Snow

Saturday Sept 17th

Light winds

from N.E. & Snow employed clearing off Snow Starboard boat away got so ends this day