

Schooner Glacier Log, Wintering

Saturday June 10th 1865

commenced with Whisk strong breezes from N.W. with snow middle part moderate later part strong breeze the boats off see one whale

Sunday June 11th

comes in with Whisk strong breezes from N.W. pleasant weather middle & later part the same three boats started for the main land to look for whales so could

Monday June 12th

commenced with Light breezes from N.E. pleasant weather at 7 p.m. the harbour boat from the bark & gills or bow boat from the glacier fastened & got two whales got them to the harbor at 4 p.m.

Tuesday June 13th

This day comes in with light breezes from the N.E. cloudy weather the boats off see a few whales middle part pleasant later part the same the waist boat from bark & gills or waist boat from the glacier fastened & got two whales all the boats towing & boats on each whale

Wednesday June 14th

Light breezes from S.E. is cloudy weather all the boats towing arrived at the harbor at 7 p.m. is out one whale blowing & gale from N.E. finished cutting the whale the ice breaking off fast.

Thursday June 15th

Strong gale from S.E. with rain middle part the same later part light breeze from N.E. & fog the bow boat from the glacier fastened to the gale & saved him & boats towing him to the ship at North Island Harbor

Friday June 16th 1865

commenced with
Light breezes from N.E. foggy weather middle part clear the waist boat from the glacier fastened saved the whale arrived at the harbor at 4 p.m. nine boats towing light breeze & pleasant

Saturday June 17th

this day begins with a strong breeze from N.W. changeable weather the harbour boat from bark & gills fastened to a small whale & dragged only one in sight middle part pleasant later part a gale

Sunday June 18th

commenced with
A fresh gale from the N.E. pleasant weather middle & later part the same a large pack came down from the N. so ends this day

Monday June 19th

This day comes in with light breezes from the N.E. pleasant weather commenced to jaw ice in the outer harbor with A boat crew from each vessel middle & later part light breeze the pack in see one whale in the ice

Tuesday June 20th

commenced with
pleasant weather & calm middle & later part light breeze from the westward the boats off

Wednesday June 21st

light breeze from N.W. pleasant weather middle & later part the same see a few commenced boiling in the harbor so ends this day