

Schooner Glacier Soc. Cruising off
Saturday July 4th 1885
commences with light breeze from S.W. cloudy weather middle part light breeze from N.W. pleasant see one whale & chased him later part look about all the things from the N.E. end of the island the pack about 15 miles off shore so ends

Sunday July 5th

This day comes in with a light breeze from S.W. fine weather Cruising off the end of the island middle part the same later part calm so ends this day

Monday July 6th

these 24 hours

commences with light breezes from the Westward & pleasant weather working to the N. along the land in company with bark off ship. Inset Siberia & St. Lawrence the pack in sight off shore middle part light breeze from N. later part the same

Tuesday July 7th

This day comes in with light variable winds & pleasant weather all the sail out of sight to the N. working back to Marble Island again caught two walrus middle part light air & calm later part light breeze from S.W. cloudy weather with passing rain & squalls so ends this day

Wednesday July 8th

commence with light variable winds & changeable weather cruising off the N.E. end of Marble Island some strips of ice around middle part the same later part light breeze from S.W. steering to the N. employed stowing down oil so ends this day

Marble Island Hudson Bay Thursday July 6th 1885
commences with

A light breeze from the S.W. pleasant weather steering to the N. along the land plenty of open water Marble Island out of sight middle part light breeze & pleasant at 3 P.M. off depot island the ship broke in yet five about three miles from the land some drift ice in sight so ends

Friday July 7th

This day comes
in with a fresh breeze from S.W. cloudy weather steering along the land to the N. one sail in sight four boats are ashore at cape fullerton from the depot island nearly middle part rain & sail in sight two cutting lowered for a whale set him only once land distance about 5 miles lying aback with reefed fore & mainsail plenty of ice off shore to the N. later part light breeze & foggy saw boats chasing whales let go the anchor in 17 fathoms of water so ends

Saturday July 8th

commences with

Light variable winds & foggy weather at 6 p.m. the fog light up & opened two boats for a whale going quick to the N. hove up anchor & stood along shore to the S. four sails in sight one cutting & one boiling middle part light air & calm one boat chasing whales later part light breeze from S. two boats inshore looking for whales see none so ends this day

Sunday July 9th

This day comes in

with light breeze from S.W. pleasant weather steering to the N. up the Ekblome at 7 p.m. off wager river & up to the ice luffed to the wind & working back middle part light breeze & pleasant later part light breeze from N. two boats inshore looking for whales the barboard & waist sent Mr Huber off duty sick