

Schr Glacier Log. Cruising in
Monday July 10. 1875

This day comes in with light breeze from N. & cloudy weather. See whales from the schooner & lowered the bow boat & succeeded in fastening by manual labour the boat to the stern about 10 o'clock & secured the whale. Commenced cutting at 4 p.m. & finished at 9. Three sails in sight very little ice in sight. Middle part clearing up decks. Later part working to the N. along the limit. Her Haber on duty again so ends

Tuesday July 11th

Commenced with light breeze from the N. & pleasant weather. Commenced boiling at 4 p.m. lowered the waist boat for a small whale & after getting him spoke about five M. Middle part pleasant. Later part the same plenty of ice along the land. at 9 A.M. lowered for a whale in company with bark ory. Sifted & they fastened & secured the whale. at 10 A.M. lowered for another & chased him in the ice so ends

Wednesday July 12th

This day comes in with pleasant weather & calm all the boat chasing a whale amongst the ice at 6 a.m. come aboard without success. Middle part light breeze from the N.W. working to the N. employed boiling. Later part light breeze from N.W. & pleasant. Spoke Sahr Helen. H. bound N. at 10 A.M. off Depo Island. The vessel froze in yet. finished boiling so ends

Howe's Welcome Hudson Bay
Thursday July 13. 1875

Commenced with light breeze from N.W. pleasant weather working to the N. for Marble Island. The five about 3 miles off the limit. Some drift ice in sight off shore. Middle part pleasant. Later part the same. Two boats on shore looking for whales so none. Employed about stowing down the whale stowed down to the so ends this day

Friday July 14th

comes in with light variable winds & pleasant weather. Marble Island in sight bearing S. Distance 20 miles working up to it. plenty of drift ice on shore. Middle part laying blank off the N.W. end of Marble Island. Later part light air from the N. & calm. The bark ory. Sifted in sight boiling so ends this day

Saturday July 15th

Commenced with light breeze from the N. & pleasant weather. Starting to the N. sent up fore yard & fore top sail yard & sent it Henry. Henry off duty sick. Middle part pleasant. Later part passed depo island. The vessel all froze in yet

Sunday July 16th

Light breeze from N.W. & pleasant weather. Starting to the N. in company with bark ory. Sifted at 7 p.m. raised a whale in drift ice & lashed boat fastened & got on ice. The waist boat fastened & succeeded in killing got him alongside & finished cutting at 2 A.M. Later part a moderate gale from N.W. with thunder lightning & rain. South reef fore & mainsail at 11 A.M. blown up & moderated. Made all sail so ends this day