

Ship Co. Group. H. Goggschall master

Remarks Monday July 18th 1854 day out Strong breeze from Southward with thick fog under double reefed topsails parted the beach ropes to the jib sent it on deck and unmoored

Remarks Monday July 18th Strong breeze from Southward with fog. At 11 this day beating to windward saw the island pick out for water

Remarks July 18th 11th morning Light breeze from Southward with thick fog. One part engaged with the "Cerberus" & the "Brigance" latter part steering Southward

Remarks July 18th
Light breeze from Southward beating to windward after part chased whales

Remarks July 17th
Strong breeze from Southward with thick fog saw nothing all this day beating to windward

Remarks July 18th 11th morning 30 degrees Strong breeze from Eastward with a thick fog saw land close aboard rounded off at 11 fathoms engaged with the "Cerberus" & the "Brigance" of New London

Remarks July 19th
Moderate breeze from Eastward A.C. this day lying at anchor saw 2 or 3 anchored

Ship Co. Group. H. Goggschall master

Remarks Sunday July 20th 11th 5 day

Light breeze from the Eastward with a thick fog (all this day) and lying at anchor saw nothing

Remarks Monday July 21st
Light breeze from the Eastward with fog for lying at anchor broke out for water

Remarks July 22nd
All this day lying at anchor with a light breeze from the Eastward fore part sent down fore & main top gallant yards & mast latter part ashore in sight of the "Brigance"

Remarks July 23rd
Fresh breeze from Southward at 8 A.M. "Cerberus" anchored and steered to the north & Eastward spoke the "Brigance" latter part chased whales

Remarks Thursday July 24th 1854 Strong breeze from Southward under double reefed topsails fore part foggy spoke the "Constitution" of Nantucket

Remarks July 25th 11th morning Fore part in sight breeze from Southward steering for the strait latter part foggy fore part Northward engaged with the "Montpelier" & "Cerberus"

Remarks July 26th
Fresh breeze from North South West lay at anchor till 11 o'clock fore part steered to Southward and engaged with "Cerberus"