

Continued 18-38

Tuesday These 24 hours begins with light March breeze from the N.E. Ship under the 6 all sail Storing & we reach En 1838 Playa on Ship's duty at 7 PM Ship over the Storing sails mended Port Long fine breeze and Pleasant weather at 10 3/4 AM saw a ship to the westward steering to the N.W. Latter Port fine breeze latter by old light' south

Wednesday
March 14. Here 24 hours begins with fine the breeze from the W. E. ship under oil sail steering N. N. W. back on Long Plover on ship duty & sail in sight 17.45 Middle Port fine breeze and pleasant weather at 6 AM shifted the sailing sails. Latter Part fine breeze So Under Luff by 6.30 N. 10 South

Thurs day Manned 24 hours begins with five the 8 from two 8 to 8 ship under all Long Sail string, 12 40 would employ to 12 40 and ship duty 2 sail in signal at 4 PM set the string sails on the barbed side made part five bags and fair weather at 10 AM shifted the string sails over on the stowson side Latter part five bags latter by 11 47

Monday
March These 24 hours begins with fine the 9 Breeze from the S.E. ship under Long All sails work employed on ship 20th 1/2 Duty Midways Port fine breeze and Pleasant weather Ship strong & W Latter Part continued the same S. E. ends these 24 hours Lat 26' South

Continued 12.58

Saturday These 24 hours begins with fine Marble Breeze from the S. C. and fine with these ship under all sail with Employed Long on Ships Duty at 4 P.M. absent the 2nd of old Division Hapsail and Bent the men and Ship Storing A. B. & Middle Port Nine Buz at 6 AM & sail in light latter Port fine breeze and Pleasant So Ends Lat By obs 12 06 40.15

Secondary beach. Here 24 hours begins with logs that have from the S.E. ship under all sail, work employed on ship Long. Ant. Ship strong. 4 24 W at 4 P.M.
22. 33. Whisker up. Middle Pass. 11. 11.

100
 90
 80
 70
 Monday
 March 11
 the 12th

a sail to the Western Manner, in the Southward and Western Middle Part light breeze and squally at 2 AM heavy showers of rain attended with thunder and lightning at 10 AM heavy showers of rain subsided off the deck with binders Latter Part Rainy & Calm

Tuesday. No obs this day Monday. These 24 hours begins with light breeze the 13 and calmer ship under all sail heading S. by N. wind Employed on ships duty Individual Part calm. Sailed with light Shours off Harve. Thunder lightning at 4 PM. Heavy latter Part calm and sail in sight. No obs westward No obs this day