

Journal by Thomas O. Neff

New Bedford February 1842

Wednes. 19	On Board
Thurs. 20	On Board
Frid. 21	No work
Sat. 22	No work
Sund. 23
Mon. 24	On Board
Tues. 25	On Board
Wednes. 26	No work
Thurs. 27	Shipped G. Grand Hoop Rodman Wood Master for a trip to New York and back him to New Bedford.

Journal of a Crasting Trip by Thomas O. Neff in

February 13th	Hoop Rodman to New York
Feb. 28	Joined the Hoop this morning Went over to Fair haven and back in part of our cargo (at) there came back to New Bedford at 5 P.M. a strong breeze	18
Feb. 29	Taking in oil all day got the hole full and a little on deck. Heaved in the Hoop at Liberty every night. Still in the hands	sw
March
Sund. 1	Got my things ready to go to New York	st to
Mon. 2	Got all ready to start waiting to go for a fair wind
Tues. 3	A strong breeze	ws to
Wednes. 4	Started at 9 A.M. got as far as Nantuxet, anchored lay there all night blowing very hard	to
Thurs. 5	Came back to New Bedford blowing hard
Frid. 6	A fair breeze	sw
Sat. 7	A strong breeze	ssw
Sund. 8	Light and cold	sw
Mon. 9	A strong breeze	to
Tues. 10	A strong breeze
Wed. 11	At 10 A.M. laid out our anchors and started the Hoop off deck and started blowing heavy got into Newington at 5 P.M. Anchored. Our decks covered with ice. Very cold water. waiting up to Stonington
Thurs. 12	Started at 11 A.M. Anchored under Black point at 6 P.M.	