

Journal of A Whaling voyage by Thomas O'Keefe

1841 Ship Guard Turk December wind from Lat. Lon, North West

Thurs 16 At 4 A.M. fired for a pilot at 6 we got the old fellow aboard, bent our North Atlantic cables and got the anchor off the bow at 8 P.M. got along side of Hazard, what I spend the voyage after an absence of 20 months and days got ashore at 9 P.M. now go home and have something good to eat. Went to board North Star Regent
No. 70 to learn what

Names of the Officers and crew of the Ship Grand Turk

Third voyage

William W. Taylor Master
Shenazar Dexter Chief Mate
Blair Taylor Second Mate
Henry Jackson Third Mate
Benjamin B. Ector
John A. Simmons
Henry Thompson
Thomas O'Keefe
William Gray Corporal
John K. Quinn Steward
John Bull Cook
Charles Wood Storage boy
Amos Baker
James Baker
Hijah B. Galtling
Charles Hall
John Covel
Thomas Brandwood
Jeremiah Fay
Edward Jones left sick in the Azores
James Washington ran away in Azores
J. Jackson ran away in Azores
Francis Silva killed by a whale
Francis Silva got in Sargol and discharged there Marcelino got in Sargol
George Francis got in Sargol
William Joseph got in Sargol and discharged there
Manuel Austin
Manuel Francis
Mathias Francis
Joseph Dalmarada
Francis Jon
Joseph
Patricio Miranda	Get in Sargol

First Mate

Second Mate

Coland