

493 Remarks on Sunday November 8th 1855.
at 8 P.M. The 24 Hours begins with a drizzle from East 30 29th & good weather. Morning 1 Watch Empty, in Ship Duty Linn & Grimmer & on Sail at Sun Down. Water fair latter part of the Day fresh traces & peeping clouds at 8 A.M. were ship & Thacker & Dwyer by themselves & had a fair watch Empty, in looking over our potatoes Linn Grimmer at 3 past 11 to Mr. Philip at 6 P.M. To the 14th at Minchin then 1 M to Exeter this Day 30 29th Linn in by 17-14 South by in by 14 30 30 west.