

St. Michaels Com^d with strong wind from South with thick weather at 4 pm Saturday double reefed at 5 pm one sail in sight ahead at 6 pm double December 18th set one reef set main top sail and Calus light in at 9 am from Staten Land dist 80 miles the light being 1/2 way 88 & 65 Lat 40 " 62 36

St. Michaels Com^d with light breeze from N in course 330 with clear pleasant weather Sunday one sail in sight this day yet catches about foremast and courses December 19th then tried strong steady wind from N course 30 & 2 sails in sight at daylight from 330 at 2 am wind increasing with thick weather single reefed and reefed main sail course 30 & 2 sails Lat 40 " 66 24

St. Michaels Com^d strong breeze from N at 1 pm then moderate set main Monday top of sail at 4 pm saw a large shoal of Blackfish at 4 1/2 pm December 20th wind veered to S with thick weather & sail in sight round round Cape Horn. Wrote of L. R. Company. Then strong breeze with heavy squalls ship under single reefed the light gale reefed courses took in 1st and double reefed lead 30 m. in next this. Good one sail in sight

Tuesday December Eight In The Pacific Ocean Com^d with strong breeze ship under double reefed and courses heading 38 m wind in and part heavy S. made all sail at daylight Calus employed in getting out provisions later wind light with foggy weather wind from N. in S. E. S. S.
Lat 38 26 Long 78 53

St. Michaels Com^d with light breeze from N. ship heading 20 m thick foggy Wednesday weather at 1 pm struck a Porpoise small light breeze and thick foggy December 21st at 3 pm wind veered to the South one ship steering N at 7 am 3 sails in sight steering the same latter wind lost single reefed with an English ship bound home this end
Lat 38 28 Long 78 55

St. Michaels Com^d with light breeze from S. E. course 104 sails in sight Thursday at 6 pm light rain with snow and evening to the 1st sail put December 22nd wind veered to the N. one more ship heading S. at 5 am lead 1 m spoke ship. Cruncher of these 2 more ships in sight at 10 am squally weather heading 30 m double reefed thick weather
Lat 38 11 Long 80 35

St. Michaels Com^d with strong wind from West ship heading 8 m under Friday double reefed at 10 am clear weather and reefed main course December 23rd at 5 pm one ship heading S. m. and part thick weather with strong wind at noon one ship heading S. m. all sail set this end thick weather
Lat 38 28 Long 74 31

St. Michaels Com^d with light wind from S. ship heading S. m. one sail in sight Saturday at 6 pm course 100 m wind N. W. E. with fine rain all day December 24th set main steady breeze with fine rain at daylight one sail in sight at 6 am came up with English ship on Elizabeth of Bristol latter Calus & sails in sight
Lat 38 00 Long 78 10

St. Michaels Com^d with Calus & sails in sight at 7 pm (Calus) and Calus Saturday at 6 am light air from South course 100 m the fine December 25th breeze with thick weather & sails in sight 2 sails
Lat 38 27 Long 77 14

St. Michaels Com^d with light steady breeze from S. course 100 m at 2 pm Sunday wind increasing took up, boats took in light sails. Midday December 26th thin and hail squalls ship under what before at 10 am experienced a short heavy squall gusty primarily carried away jibboom the men work gave out on the Starboard head hoop at Meridian got 1/2 in and rigging clear single reefed foremast and got dinner this end this day work
Lat 38 02 Long 77 55