

Day of Dargue Greyhound of Westport

(C. C. C.)
(S. M. P.) Can' with fine weather & birds in sight at 1 pm the Saturday 1st) Getchel 6 birds dist to windward lower two boat November 17th we did not see any whals in 2 half hours back them up again the other ships lower 4 boats dist to birds at 2 pm raised a large whale off the weather quarter dist 2 miles lower for him he passed close to a carcass and got galled a clembor right there stayed down one hour and a half. Came up 4 miles to lower went down before we could get there Spouted 7 times supposed wounded did not see him again clerk came on lower shortened sail shut in better light air 3 ships in sight all got nothing to do

Lett 14.50 Lett 22.59

(C. C. C.)
(S. M. P.) Can' with light breeze ship heading off shore
Sunday 2 ships in sight and one flumpback at 6 pm
November 20th Shortened sail more ship heading in shore
 2 birds in sight doing nothing to do

Lett 14.41 Lett 22.42

(C. C. C.)
(S. M. P.) Can' with light air one sail in sight ship in Monday the wind heading to the westward and the November 21st same like the same finbacks plenty to do

Lett 15.01 Lett 22.02

Cruising On The Collao Ground

(C. C. C.)
(S. M. P.) Can' with fine weather more ship heading to the Tuesday Eastward finbacks in sight and baysie atchelt
November 22nd Must be ship in to the Eastward like the same
 2 birds in sight all hungry to do

(C. C. C.)
(S. M. P.) Can' with fine weather ship heading in shore at Wednesday 2 pm some blackfish going quick 5 birds in sight
November 23rd at 6 pm land in sight more ship shortened sail and the same like heading in shore 5 birds in sight to do

Lett 14.51

(C. C. C.)
(S. M. P.) Can' with strong trade 5 birds in sight at Thursday 10 pm more ship to the Eastward like heading November 24th to the westward 2 birds in sight to do

Lett 15.41 Lett 22.33

(C. C. C.)
(S. M. P.) Can' with with strong trade 6 birds in sight Friday at 4 pm more ship to the Eastward like the November 25th same like South the same nothing in sight

Lett 14.54 Lett 22.23