

Log of Barque Greyhound of Westport

Remk'd) comm'd with light air ship heading East & sail in Wednesday) Light at 6 pm took ship to the S. at 8 pm calm January) And light air at 7 am sent down foresail to repair ship heading Second) to the Eastward fine clear weather 3 sail in sight this end
 Lat 13.51 Long 78.02

Remk'd) comm'd with light air at 4 pm finished foresail and Thursday) sent it at 6 pm more ship heading S. in one sail in January) sight And the dark better part fine clear weather nothing in sight this end
 Lat 14.20

Remk'd) comm'd with strong breeze nothing in sight Friday) And strong breeze ship heading to the Eastward January) better part heading to the S. this end
 Lat 14.04 Long 77.57

Remk'd) comm'd with fine weather nothing in sight Saturday) ship heading to the S. - And the fine better part 4 sail January) in sight in whole this end
 Lat 14.39 Long 78.30

Remk'd) comm'd with light breeze nothing in sight ship heading Sunday) East at 10 pm more ship heading S. in at 10 am our January) ship to the East 6 sail in sight light air and clear weather nothing in sight this end
 Lat 14.22 Long 78.22

Remk'd) comm'd with light air at 2 pm more ship to the north Monday) at 7 am more ship to the East 7 sail in sight January) better the dense fog in making light air
 this end
 Lat 14.22 Long 78.08

Cruising on the Galapagos

Remk'd) comm'd with strong breeze ship heading to the East Tuesday) 4 sail in sight the watch employed in making January) near main top of sail at 6 pm took in light sails And strong breeze ship heading in the morning in sight but one sail and found the this day finished the main top of sail and sent it to the end
 Lat 14.14 Long 77.11

Remk'd) comm'd with light breeze ship heading to the East Wednesday) spoke ship Commodore Morris this part heading January 9th in at 10 am saw the land more ship off shore
 this end
 Lat 14.08 Long 76.32

Thursday) comm'd with fine weather nothing in sight January) ship heading off shore And the same later steering on N. or 2 sail in sight this end
 Lat 14.33 Long 75.11

Remk'd) comm'd with fine weather ship of the main to the Friday) on at 4 pm 7 sail in sight at 6 pm January) spoke Barque adrag in strong breeze nothing in sight but sail later the same 2 end
 Lat 14.43 Long 75.20

Remk'd) comm'd with strong breeze ship heading to the East Saturday) ship heading S. in And strong breeze better steering January) at this end
 Lat 14.21 Long 75.20

Remk'd) comm'd with strong breeze ship heading to the East Sunday) heading 4 at 7 am more ship heading S. in this end
 Lat 14.10 Long 75.40

Remk'd)