

1897 Journal of Whaling Voyage

- Tuesday February 16th Lat 31.29 S Lon 9.57 E
This day light wind cutting
- Wednesday February 17th Lat 31.19 Lon 10.01
This day strong breeze cutting at 3.00 P.M. got hody in 5.00
commence boiling
- Thursday February 18th Lat 30.47 Lon 9.56
This day strong breeze boiling
have the junk in have up the case
nothing in it
- Friday February 19th Lat 30.24 Lon 9.45
This day strong breeze boiling
at 7.00 P.M. finish boiling head up 75 lbs
- Saturday February 20th Lat 30.04 Lon 9.42
This day strong breeze under
short sail stowing down
- Sunday February 21st Lat 29.44 S Lon 10.39 E
This day strong breeze under
short sail by the wind on starboard
heading to the E
- Monday February 22nd Lat 29.02 Lon 10.44
This day strong breeze under
topsails and courses heading to the E

Joseph J Enos Master

- Tuesday February 23rd Lat 28.16 S Lon 10.48 E
This day strong breeze under
topsails and courses heading to the E.
saw two sails bound N. saw several finback and cowfish
- Wednesday February 24th Lat 27.42 Lon 11.58
This day strong breeze under topsails
and courses steering E by N. saw blackfish
- Thursday February 25th Lat 26.26 Lon 12.26
This day gale from the S. under short sail steering N. E. by N. 4.10 P.M. luff too on Port tack under lower main topsail
- Friday February 26th Lat 26.02 Lon 11.44
This day gale continue the same with heavy swell laying too on same tack
- Saturday February 27th Lat 25.22 Lon 11.03
This day moderate under short sails steering N. N. E. saw a steamer bound S. E.
- Sunday February 28th Lat 24.43 Lon 10.34
This day light breeze steering to the N.