

1897 Journal of Whaling Voyage

Monday March 1st Lat 23.49 S Lon 11.11 E
This day light wind and hazy all sail sett steering to the N.E.

Tuesday March 2nd Lat 23.06 Lon 12.03
This day light wind and hazy all sail sett steering to the N.E.

Wednesday March 3rd Lat 22.52 Lon 11.43
This day light wind and hazy steering to the west strapping gny blocks

Thursday March 4th Lat 22.56 Lon 10.17
This day fine weather all sail sett steering W. by N. repairing the foresail

Friday March 5th Lat 22.21 Lon 9.47
This day fine weather all sail sett steering to the N.E. repairing topsail

Saturday March 6th Lat no obs
This day fine weather all sail sett steering to the E. saw cowfish repairing topsail

Sunday March 7th Lat 20.44 S Lon 11.40 E
This day fine weather all sail
sett steering to the N.E. saw finback

Joseph J. Enos Master

Monday March 8th Lat 19.31 S Lon 12.54 E
This day strong breeze and hazy all sail sett by the wind on starboard tack heading to the E saw several schools Porpoises

Tuesday March 9th Lat 18.52 S Lon 13.44 E
This day light wind and hazy all sail sett steering to the E at 4.30 raise land 15 miles off Chronometer 100 miles to the East

Wednesday March 10th Lat 19.01 Lon 13.05
This day light wind all sail sett by the wind on Port tack heading to the W. saw finback & several school porpoises

Thursday March 11th Lat 19.03 Lon 12.15
This day light wind and hazy first part heading to the W. latter heading to the E. saw Blackfish and Porpoises

Friday March 12th Lat 18.44 Lon 10.23
This day light wind all sail sett steering to the N.E. saw Blackfish saw three boats got two