

1904. May. 1904.

Wednesday 18

First part of this day fresh Easterly trades bark going by the wind on starboard tack. Latter part same weather took in main gallant sail and fly jib.

Lat. 22.30
Long. 62.37

Thursday 19

First part of this day strong Easterly winds bark going by the wind on starboard tack employed in doing different jobs. Latter part lighter winds saw some porpoises

Lat. 24.08
Long. 62.14

Friday 20

First part of this day fresh East winds bark steering by the wind on starboard tack. Latter very light winds at 11.50 A.M. raised a school of sperm whales and got boats ready to lower.

Lat. 25.38
Long. 61.36

Saturday 21

First part of this day very light S. E. Winds lowered 4 boats at 12.30 for a school of sperm whales and at 3.00 P.M. B. B. got fast and got him alongside other boat were not successful in getting any. Latter part cut the whale in. Man fell from upper topsail yard not seriously hurt.

Lat. 26.46
Long. 60.45

1904. May. 1904.

Sunday 22

First part of this day fresh breeze from S. bark laying to under lower topsails employed in boiling whale. Latter part strong breeze and rain squalls. Boiling to run some oil down.

Lat.
Long.

Monday 23

First part of this day light winds from S. bark laying to boiling saw one steamer also I had a little rain. Latter part same weather got through boiling & stowing down.

Lat. 27.44
Long. 59.27

Tuesday 24

First part of this day light winds and pleasant weather employed in washing paint bark going by the wind on starboard tack to wind from the South. Latter part calm weather employed in doing odd jobs.

Lat. 28.10
Long. 59.24

Wednesday 25

First part of this day calm weather saw a school of grampuses & some dolphins. Latter part same

Lat.
Long.

Thursday 26

First part of this day calm weather employed in breaking out sugar. Latter part same weather nothing in sight

Lat.
Long.