

1904. July. 1904.

Friday¹

First part of this day light S.E. winds bark cruising saw some blackfish also saw some spouts to leeward run for them but they were no good. Latter part stowing some casks in after hold and running down oil.

Lat. 31.26
Long. 52.46

Saturday²

First part of this day light E. winds bark cruising got through stowing and washed off decks. Latter part same weather schooner in sight.

Lat.
Long.

Sunday³

First part of this day fresh easterly winds bark cruising under all sail spoke with the Pedro Varela and saw to the windward another whaling bark. Latter part spoke the Bark A. R. Tucker also schooner raised a whale for which all lowered but when we got there the schooner's boats ~~was~~ were fast so we came back ~~as~~.

Lat. 31.24
Long. 53.11

1904. July. 1904.

Monday⁴

First part of this day fine weather and light easterly winds bark cruising under all sail. Latter part same weather with a little fresher breeze got some oil from the Pedro Varela and started to run S.W.

Lat. 31.12
Long. 52.59

Tuesday⁵

First part of this day fresh breeze and pleasant weather bark running S.W. Latter part same weather bark running to the westward. stowed the cask of oil we got from the schooner one bark in sight also a steamer.

Lat. 31.00
Long. 53.13

Wednesday⁶

First part of this day light Easterly winds and fine weather bark running to the westward with all sail out. Latter part calm and squally weather. took down fore gallant sail to fix.

Lat. 30.30
Long. 54.05

Thursday⁷

This day started with a heavy rain squall bark running into the R. E. under lower topsails. Latter part calm weather employed in sewing the fore gallant sail saw some grampus.

Lat.
Long.