

1905: June. 1905:

Thursday¹

All this day fine weather and light winds bark cruising under all sail crew employed in doing various things

Lat. 30.57
Long. 6-31.57

Friday²

All these 24 hours fresh breeze and choppy seas bark cruising under all sail. Latter part of this day raised two large sperm whales and lowered 4 boats for them and struck and killed them & both one whaling bark in sight

Lat. 31.20
Long. 6-2.49

Saturday³

First part of this day fair weather and fresh breeze got whales alongside and made them fast. Latter part started to cut them in also started boiling.

Lat. 32.00
Long. 6-2.22

Sunday⁴

All this day fair weather and light winds employed in cutting and boiling and stowing oil

Lat.
Long.

1905: June 1905:

Monday⁵

This day light southerly winds and fine weather got through cutting in and employed in boiling and stowing oil spoke bark Canton with 150 barrels of oil.

Lat.
Long.

Tuesday⁶

All through these 24 hours fine weather and light winds from the south bark cruising under all sail got through boiling two barks and a schooner in sight.

Lat.
Long.

Wednesday⁷

Throughout these 24 hours light southerly winds and fine weather got through stowing oil and washed vessel and done other things.

Lat.
Long.

Thursday⁸

All of this day fresh southerly winds and clear weather bark cruising under whole topsails crew employed in doing odd jobs one steamer in sight

Lat. 32.15
Long. 6-32.5