

1905: June. 1905:

Friday 9

All this day fresh southerly winds and clear weather bark cruising under upper topsails. Crew employed in doing odd jobs.

Lat. 32.26
Long. 53.06

Saturday 10

All these 24 hours light southerly winds and fine weather bark cruising under all sail. Crew employed in doing odd jobs.

Lat. 32.10
Long. 53.07

Sunday 11

First half of these 24 hours fresh winds and clear weather bark cruising under upper topsails. One sailor by name Miguel A. Lopez died after being sick one week and was thrown overboard at sundown. Latter half light winds and fine weather employed in setting up casks.

Lat.
Long.

Monday 12

All of these 24 hours calm weather. Employed in flagging casks and stowing them down the hold.

Lat.
Long.

1905: June. 1905:

Tuesday 13

These 24 hours light winds and cloudy weather bark cruising under all sail wind from the south employed in stowing casks and doing other things.

Lat.
Long.

Wednesday 14

The whole of this day light southerly winds and fine weather bark cruising under all sail. Got through stowing and washed vessel.

Lat. 32.00
Long. 54.47

Thursday 15

This day fresh breeze from the south bark cruising under all sail. Took down foresail and fixed it and did other jobs.

Lat. 31.50
Long. 51.04

Friday 16

This day dead calm all day long. Crew employed in filling empty casks with salt water.

Lat.
Long.

Saturday 17

This day calm weather. Picked up a log of wood and caught some fish.

Lat.
Long.