

Thursday 20
Wednesday

1905. July. 1905.

This day fine weather and light winds from the westward bark running by the wind on port tack saw some grampus.

Lat. 33.00
Long. 49.49

Friday 21

This day light winds and fine weather bark cruising under all sail employed in stowing some casks down the hold and filling saltwater.

Lat. 32.52
Long. 49.13

Saturday 22

This day light winds and fine weather winds from the south bark running into the westward saw some porpoises and grampus.

Lat.
Long.

Sunday 23

This day light S.W. winds and fine weather bark cruising under all sail at daylight - saw three whales & looking and one cutting latter saw them with boats down we lowered also but had no success.

Lat.
Long.

Whales

1905. July. 1905.

Monday 24

This day squally weather and fresh winds spoke bark Bertha with 760 barrels and looking also spoke schooner Pedro Varela with 400 barrels. fore gallant yard broke in two pieces while bracing around yards. saw whales but were going to the windward too fast and did not lower.

Lat.
Long.

Tuesday 25

This day clear weather and fresh winds. bark cruising under upper topsails employed in making new gallant yard.

Lat.
Long.

Wednesday 26

All through these 24 hours light winds and fine weather sent up new fore gallant yard latter part saw one large sperm whale lowered 4 boats and B.B. got him while helping to kill him S.B. got stove.

Lat. 33.06
Long. 50.07

Thursday 27

This day fine weather and light westerly winds cut in the whale and began to boil. some vessels in sight

Lat. 33.16
Long. 50.15