

1905; November. 1905;

Friday 17

This day began with fine weather and fresh winds from N.E. Lowered three boats after the school of whales. W. B. got one and the others started and the two boats after them but could not get a chance at them again. Got whale alongside and cut him in before dark. and morning started boiling

Lat. 18.25-
Long. 36.42

Saturday 18

This day blowing a fresh gale from N.E. Got through boiling and started running into the S.W. Latter part calm and plenty rain.

Lat. 18.50
Long. 37.00

Sunday 19

This began with calms and rain. and ended with calms no rain.

Monday 20

This day began with calm weather at 4 P.M. raised a school of what we thought were sperm whales lowered three boats and chased their boats got close to them and found they were humpbacks. so they came aboard. Latter part saw some more humpbacks.

Lat.
Long.

1905; November. 1905;

Tuesday 21

This day began with calm weather raised a large sperm whale at 12 M. lowered 3 boats and the bow boat started and the other helped to kill got him alongside at 3 1/2 M. and got ready to cut in and a strong squall struck from south with rain. could not work latter part calm got the whale in.

Lat. 20.48
Long. 37.49

Wednesday 22

All these 24 hours calm employed in boiling and stowing oil.

Lat.
Long.

Thursday 23

All these 24 hours strong breeze from the N.E. bark steering S.W. 1/2 S. got through boiling saw some spouts but they disappeared

Lat.
Long.

Friday 24

First part of this day strong N.E. winds bark steering S.W. 1/2 S. got through stowing. Latter part blowing a gale. bark hove to under lower sails.

Lat.
Long.