

1905. December. 1905.

Friday¹

These 24 hours strong breeze from the S.E. bark steering by the Wind on port tack employed in breaking out bread.

Lat.
Long.

Saturday²

These 24 hours fresh winds and cloudy weather bark cruising under upper topsails employed in mending the Foresail.

Lat. 32.22
Long. 48.46

Sunday³

All through these 24 hours fine weather with light easterly winds bark cruising under all sail saw some squid and a school of grampus.

Lat.
Long.

Monday⁴

All these 24 hours fine weather and light winds from the east. bark cruising under all sail employed in fixing fore yard and doing other jobs.

Lat.
Long.

1905. December. 1905.

Tuesday⁵

These 24 hours light winds and fine weather bark cruising under all sail raised one large sperm whale lowered three boats. ^{Whole} whale came up close to ship captain board got fast but iron drew out later got fast again and again iron drew out. whale went to windward.

Lat. 34.16
Long. 48.13

Wednesday⁶

These 24 hours fine weather and light winds bark cruising under all sail raised 3 large sperm whales lowered three boats but no success.

Lat.
Long.

Thursday⁷

These 24 hours blowing a strong gale and heavy rain bark laying to under main lower topsail.

Lat.
Long.

Friday⁸

These 24 hours clear weather and light winds bark cruising under all sail saw one school of grampus also one sail

Lat. 34.55
Long. 48.44