

1906. January. 1906.

Monday¹

This day started with light southerly winds and high seas. Tried to cut the whale but had to leave it. Latter part better weather got the whale in. employed in boiling and stowing oil.

Lat.
Long.

Tuesday²

This day light winds and fair weather employed in boiling and stowing oil.

Lat. 35.50
Long. 48.09

Wednesday³

This day calm weather got through boiling. employed in coopers some casks and stowing oil.

Lat.
Long.

Thursday⁴Whales⁴

This day light winds and fine weather raised a school of sperm whales lowered 3 boats and got two later raised another school and got two more.

Lat. 36.00
Long. 49.20

Friday⁵

This day calm weather cut in the whales and started bolting.

Lat.
Long.

1906. January. 1906.

Saturday⁶

This day light breeze from N.W. and fine weather raised a school of sperm whales lowered 3 boats and got three whales.

Lat.
Long.

Sunday⁷

This day light breeze from N.W. and fine weather cut in the whales and made sail steering N.E.

Lat.
Long.

Monday⁸

This day fine weather and light north winds took steering by the wind on port tack got through boiling and stowing

Tuesday⁹

This day light winds from N. N. E. took steering by the wind on port tack employed in m washing ship. and st setting up rigging.

Lat. 34.45
Long. 46.02

Wednesday¹⁰

These 24 hours light breeze from E. N. E. took going on starboard tack by the wind spoke american bark "Hulmandy" bound north employ in setting up rigging

Lat.
Long.