

1906. June. 1906.

Friday¹

This day began with fair E. N. E. winds and fine weather bark steering N. W. by W. under all sail. Latter part almost calm.

Lat. 31.45
Long. 61.38

Saturday²

This day began with very light airs from E. S. E. bark steering W. N. W. with all sail out. weather fine. Latter part calm.

Lat. 32.12
Long. 63.07

Sunday³

This day began with calm weather and very clear. Latter part cloudy and rainy. Raised land at 11.30. A. M.

Lat. 32.20
Long. 63.50

Monday⁴

This day began with fair weather bark laying off and on at Bermuda health officer and pilot came aboard.

Tuesday⁵

Bark laying off and on captain was so sick he has to go home and left the mate A. T. Edwards in charge at 4 P. M. made whole sail and got off. to sea. Latter part of this day dead calm. land yet in sight

Lat.
Long.

1906. June. 1906.

Wednesday⁶

The first part of this day dead calm. Latter part light winds from the west bark steering E. by S. all sail out. saw a few planks & logs.

Lat.
Long.

Thursday⁷

This began with fresh westerly winds and fine clear weather bark steering E. by S. all sail out. Latter part same

Lat. 31.54
Long. 62.27

Friday⁸

This day began with light westerly winds and fine weather bark steering E. by S. under all sail saw some porpoises. Latter same.

Lat. 31.50
Long. 59.49

Saturday⁹

The whole of this day light winds from the westward and fine weather bark steering E. by S. under all sail.

Lat. 31.42
Long. 57.5-3

Sunday¹⁰

First part fine weather wind light from West. bark steering E. by South. Latter part spoke bark A. R. Tucker and gave her one each of bread and 4 lbs. of flour.

Lat.
Long.