

1907 April 1907

Wednesday 10

First part of this day strong breeze and cloudy weather. Bark steering by the wind under lower sails crew employed in mending head sails and fore sails. Latter light wind.

Lat
Long

Thursday 11

This 24 hours began with light winds and pleasant weather. Bark steering by the wind under all sails out crew employed in mending sails also saw one steamer. Latter dying down to a calm.

Lat
Long

Friday 12

This day began with very little breeze and some rain. Bark steering N.W. under all sails out crew employed in mending main sails and lower topsails and sent it up while fresh winds from S.W. Latter blowing hard took in the sails laying to windward.

Lat
Long

1907 April 1907

Saturday 13

First part of this day blowing fresh gale from S.W. Bark laying to under main lower topsails crew employed in mending some sails. Latter moderate little.

Lat
Long

Sunday 14

This day moderating. Bark steering by wind under lower sails also one steamer in sight while squalls and some rain take in mainsails. Latter blowing quite hard.

Lat
Long

Monday 15

This day began with strong breeze and foggy weather. Bark laying to windward under lower topsails while moderating make some more sails and going by the wind on port tack. Latter same weather also saw two towed full rigged ship and three masted schooner. Thought is anchored also 2 steamers in sight.

Lat
Long