

- Sept 10 First part of this day commences with very little wind and fine clear weather. Bk. under all sails out, steering S.E., crew at ship works. Saw grampus and porpoise land yet in sight latter part the same.
- Sept 11. This day begun with light variable wind Bk. steering S.E. under all sails out, watches employed at rigging works land yet in sight, latter part of the much as first. Saw two steamer.
- Sept 12. Today comes with light variable wind Bk. under all sails out steering S.E. raised school of sperm whales by Mr. Gomez and lowered three boats. Larboard boat struck and brought the whale to the ship and come to cut in - and start the tryworks. latter same condition.
- Sept 13 All through this 24 hours very light breeze Bk. under all sails out yet through boiling employed in clearing away the deck. latter same weather employed in running down the oil.
- Sept 14 Today commences with light breeze wind and fine clear weather Bk. under all sails out heading along S.E. Saw land of the brow. latter much as first St Michael yet in sight.

- Sept 15 This day begun with good breeze wind and squally weather Bk. steering S.E. under all sails out. crew employed at various ship works. Saw two steamer. latter same condition.
- Sept 16 Today comes with strong breeze wind and squally weather Bk. under upper topsail steering by the wind doing nothing in account of weather latter moderate some. Saw a steamer.
- Sept 17 This day blowing from S.E. Bk. lay to, on port tack under lower topsails. latter part of the day wind moderately some with swells. Saw one sail and a steamer.
- Sept 18 Today commences with light breeze wind and kind squally weather Bk. under all sails out steering by the wind in morning raised school of sperm whales by Mr. Santos going very fast towards did not lower at 1030 raised again to leeward and lowered down three boats. Larboard boat struck and brought it to the ship comes to cut in while cutting raised a large whale but it was let. did not lower. latter strong N.E. struck Bk. steer S. under lower topsail.