

July 15 First part of this day fresh breeze wind with swells employed in cutting at 7. got through cutting set the watches and made fire latter same condition

July 16 Today commences with fresh breeze and squally like Bk employed in boiling and pumping out fresh water latter much as first saw A. Steamer

July 17 These 24 hours squally weather Bk employed in boiling and running down the oil raised large sperm whale by Edmund Monro's and lowered down the three boats struck up squalls with rain called the boats aboard got through boiling latter same condition

July 18 This day calm weather Bk laying around on head ways raised school of sperm whales by Joseph M. Conceicao and lowered down 4 boats & B got fast and brought the whale to the ship and come to cut him latter employed in boiling

July 19 Today begun with light breeze wind and fine clear weather Bk cruising with all sails out, employed in running down the oil latter part much as first

July 20 Throughout this day light breeze and pleasant weather Bk cruising under all sails out. watches employed in stowing away the things and wash off the deck latter part same weather

July 21 Today begun with very little breeze and fine clear weather Bk under all sails set watches at various ship duty raised a large sperm whale by Antonio M. Silva gone quick to windwards also lowered down the four boats without any success latter about the same as yesterday

July 22 This day comes with very little breeze almost calm Bk under all sails out. employed in set up few casks latter part same condition

July 23 With light breeze wind and fine clear weather Bk cruising under all sails out saw grampuss latter part of the day same as yesterday

July 24 All through this 24 hours light breeze wind with pleasant weather Bk cruising under all sails out men employed at various ship works. saw grampuss latter same kind of weather

July 25 This day begun with light breeze and fine clear weather Bk cruising under all sails set watches employed at ship works and set up one small cask latter part of the day much as first