

| H. H. H. Course Wind.                |   |   |           | Sunday February 24 th |                                             |
|--------------------------------------|---|---|-----------|----------------------------------|---------------------------------------------|
| 9                                    | 3 | 1 | at 10.45  | 2. ex. 2.                        | Mast. Breeze & clear                        |
| 2                                    | 3 | 1 |           |                                  |                                             |
| 6                                    | 1 | 1 | S.E. 3.5. |                                  | at 5 <sup>PM</sup> Tackled to the Southward |
| 8                                    | 2 | 1 |           |                                  |                                             |
| 10                                   | 3 | " |           |                                  | at 6 <sup>PM</sup> was Brought too by       |
| 12                                   | 3 | " |           |                                  |                                             |
| 2                                    | 2 | 1 |           |                                  | The Haggon privateers of                    |
| 4                                    | 2 | 1 |           |                                  |                                             |
| 6                                    | 3 | " |           |                                  | 14 guns belonging to her post               |
| 8                                    | 3 | " |           |                                  |                                             |
| 10                                   | 2 | 1 | at 11.5   | 2. ex. 2.                        | The Middle & latter part                    |
| 12                                   | 3 | " |           |                                  |                                             |
| Lat. 36. 37.                         |   |   |           | Mast. & clear                    |                                             |
| Long. 10. 30                         |   |   |           |                                  |                                             |
| Long. by 4. 40. 00. Moon 11. 30. 00. |   |   |           |                                  |                                             |

| Day | Hour | Wind     | Weather | Remarks                                             |
|-----|------|----------|---------|-----------------------------------------------------|
| 14  | 6    | W. by N. | Clear   | Left Port at 10 AM                                  |
| 15  | 6    | W. by N. | Clear   | At 10 AM was boarded by the British Frigate Mercury |
| 16  | 6    | W. by N. | Clear   | That day was in a state of blockade                 |
| 17  | 6    | W. by N. | Clear   | And forbade my attempting to go today               |
| 18  | 6    | W. by N. | Clear   | Under the penalty of the law in that                |
| 19  | 6    | W. by N. | Clear   | Box made and secured                                |
| 20  | 6    | W. by N. | Clear   |                                                     |
| 21  | 6    | W. by N. | Clear   |                                                     |
| 22  | 6    | W. by N. | Clear   |                                                     |
| 23  | 6    | W. by N. | Clear   |                                                     |
| 24  | 6    | W. by N. | Clear   |                                                     |
| 25  | 6    | W. by N. | Clear   |                                                     |
| 26  | 6    | W. by N. | Clear   |                                                     |
| 27  | 6    | W. by N. | Clear   |                                                     |
| 28  | 6    | W. by N. | Clear   |                                                     |
| 29  | 6    | W. by N. | Clear   |                                                     |
| 30  | 6    | W. by N. | Clear   |                                                     |