

Transactions on board the Little Williams

At 10 AM Course Wind Thursday February 28th

2
4
6
8
10
12
2
4
6
8
10
12

Calm & leave - in company
with four 74 and one 90 gun
Ship - at 2 PM the admiral's Boat came on board with a lieutenant and warned me not to attempt going it being in a state of blockade -

Lat Obs. 36.29 at 8 PM small breeze and hazy - stood off to the westward
Long. aut. 9.00 till 4 AM back to the eastward.
Emd light wind & leave -

Land in sight bearing from North to East
Concluded to try for Lisbon
thinking it for owners interest
rather than Gibraltar -

At 10 AM Course Wind Friday March 1st

2
4
6
8
10
12
2
4
6
8
10 12

at noon back to the westward
St. Mary bearing N. 30. E. 1/2 N.
about 8 leagues - at 5 PM

was brought too and boarded
by the frigate Marquis &
ordered off the coast. to the northward
if we was seen in with the Coast another day we should

Lat obs. 36.35 land in sight and make a prize
Long. aut. 10.10 of us - strong breeze & one sailed in the top sails -

From New York Towards Lisbon 1805

At 10 AM Course Wind Saturday March 2nd

2
4
6
8
10
12
2
4
6
8
10
12

Fresh breeze & cloudy - Saw 5 sail to Southward and
4 sail to Northward -

Strong breeze all night - at 3 AM was brought too by a

Lat obs. 37.5 Luggers but did not board me
Long. aut. 12.00 at the same time saw a 2
Ship under our lee headed
Variations 23.44 Eastward - Emd Mod. & hazy -

At 10 AM Course Wind Sunday March 3rd

2
4
6
8
10
12
2
4
6
8
10
12

Mod. Breezes and hazy
all these twenty four hours
standing to Northward -

Emp. getting up M. 5. 1/2 AM
and sundry sails ship duty
Ship in sight to the S. 44.

Lat obs. 38.2
Long. aut. 13.12

At 10 AM Course Wind Monday March 4th

2
4
6
8
10
12
2
4
6
8
10
12

Light wind & clear - got up
M. 5. 1/2 AM - sail in sight
standing Northward -

Middle and latter part
Light wind & clear - emp.
One sundry sails ship duty

Lat obs. 39.14
Long. aut. 13.56