

172

Schroeder Hattie E. Smith J. E. Courne Master

Thursday May 9th

This Day begins with light North West Winds Vessel on the Eastern Tack saw one Fishback at Sundown shortened Sail Middle part Wind hauled to the North latter part very light North Winds Vessel on the Eastern Tack crew employed at general Work so ends this Day

Lat 29°00 North
Long 77°44 West

Friday May 10th

This Day begins with very light North Winds Vessel on the Northern Tack Middle part Calms and light Westerly Winds latter part light Westerly Winds Vessel on the Northern Tack very thick and Hazy crew employed at general Work so ends this Day

Lat 29°35 North
Long 77°25 West

Saturday May 11th

This Day begins with light Westerly Winds very thick and Hazy at 2:30 P.M. raised a school of Sperm Whales coming to windward quick at 3 P.M. lowered all the Boats at 3:30 P.M. Wind Boat went on and fastened Whale ran and sounded heavily but killed him and got him fast alongside at 6 P.M. Middle part light Weather latter part fine light Weather got up the Cutting Gear and cut the Whale got in the Body so ends this Day

Lat 29°28 North
Long 77°11 West

173

173

Schroeder Hattie E. Smith J. E. Courne Master

Sunday May 12th

This Day begins with fine Weather and smooth Water took in the Junk and Case bailed it and sent down the Cutting Gear light Westerly Winds Middle part at 8 P.M. started the fore Works fine smooth Weather latter part fine smooth Water thick Hazy Weather Wind from the South West Vessel on the Southern Tack engaged Boiling so ends this Day

Lat 29°42 North
Long 77°01 West

Monday May 13th

This Day begins with fine Weather with light South West Winds Vessel on the Northern Tack engaged Boiling stoves down all the head Oil Middle part fine Weather engaged Boiling latter part fine Weather with Westerly Wind sent letters by the Stationer Bark de Marchi of Suva finished boiling at 11 A.M. and started to slow down Vessel on the Northern Tack so ends this Day

Lat 30°01 North
Long 77°15 West