

July 6th No Sat No Long ^{mate} Hauled a 90 bbl whale about half past six in the morning loured about nine o'clock and chased untill two when mate struck set him spouting blood first bomb and soon turned him up got along side at half past four so ends this day

" 9th No Sat No Long cut in our whale at the head off and had it along side but the hawser pipe gone away and we had to let the head go I know it is a sin but could not be helped our lower block broke down with us but we got the body so ends this day

" 10th Sat 33.08 Long 58.09 Light wind & pleasant tem tryin out so ends this day

" 11th Sat 34.44 Long 58.16 Light wind & very pleasant course I finished trying out stowed down 25 bbls - of oil so ends this day

" 12th Sat 34.20 No Long Cloudy weather with rain squalls finished stowing down today whale turned out 38 bbls minus I head which could have made as much as body so ends this day

" 13th Sat 33.85 N Long 53.08 N Strong breeze brought the light course S.E. so ends this day

July 14th Sat 32.48 N Long 53.24 N Light breeze from the S by West heading S.S.E. so ends this day

" 15th Sat 32.24 Long 51.40 Light S wind raised a large whale about 3.30 this morning loured down but did not strike came aboard and got breakfast then loured for the same whale again larboard boat went on but boatstewer missed chased off to leeward and found three more whales - larboard boat struck & got store second mate killed the whale which will make about fifty bbls - so ends this day

" 16th No Sat No Long calm all day but in our whale except the head saw whales around the ship all day but Capt would not let us - lower tried to shoot one from the bow but he settled just as I was going to shoot
so ends this day

" 17th Sat 32.28 Long 52.05 Calm all day cut pink & Case case made 10 lbs got the case overboard just before supper so ends this day

" 18th Sat 32.20 N Long 52.12 Light N.W. wind been trying out stowed down 290 galls H.C. so ends this day

" 19th Sat 32.02 N Long 52.20 N Light wind N.W. finished trying out made 60 lbs
so ends this day